AFRICAN LEADERSHIP ACADEMY
MODEL AFRICAN UNION (ALAMAU)

African Leadership Academy Model African Union (ALAMAU) is an annual leadership conference for young leaders around Africa and across the world, simulating the activities of the African Union. ALAMAU was established in 2013 as a platform for young leaders to develop implementable solutions to African development challenges through diplomacy and international cooperation, in a format inspired by the Model United Nations and the African Union.

Delegates to ALAMAU serve as representatives of various African governments on organs of the African Union, affording them the opportunity to study complex African issues, understand the positions of African countries, and learn to successfully negotiate without compromising national interests. By assuming the roles of African leaders, ALAMAU aims to empower young leaders to model international cooperation for development while celebrating diversity.
Dear Delegates and Advisors,

I am extremely delighted, on behalf of the staff and students of African Leadership Academy, to welcome you to the fourth session of the African Leadership Academy Model African Union (ALAMAU). This conference is a culmination of a year of intense effort by a team of incredibly passionate young African leaders who have resolved to not be side-lined in the process of transforming our beloved continent.

We are very glad that you have chosen to attend this conference at such a pivotal time for Africa; our economies are on the rise, there is a keen awareness of the need to invest in critical infrastructure, there are lots of innovative ideas springing up to transform education, democracy is being strengthened on the continent as autocratic regimes are gradually being replaced, and the hope of a new generation is being sparked through youth empowerment initiatives in nearly every country.

For us at African Leadership Academy, this conference is a clear demonstration of our belief in the power of youth and our commitment to empowering Africa’s future leaders to create lasting peace and shared prosperity in our continent. We believe that young people can dream big and take action to change the world, and our role is to make that possible. We have seen this conference evolve over the last four years into a powerful engine for educating and preparing the next generation of global diplomatic leaders, and we could not be prouder of the progress that has been made so far.

Personally, it has been a great delight to work alongside the 53 members of our organizing team to put this conference together. They are extremely hard working and committed to our mission, and I am very proud of their growth. As we all come together during these five days – delegates, advisors and staff – I hope that our collective determination to make our continent a better place will stimulate the committee debates, side conversations and other conference activities.

I look forward to seeing the outcome of your work.

Sincerely,

Faith Abiodun
Founder & Director, ALA Model African Union

Dear Delegates & Faculty Advisors,

Welcome to ALAMAU 2017! It is with immense pleasure that I finally welcome you all to this conference that we have long waited for, with the hope of making this a transformative and life changing experience for all.

ALAMAU started four years ago as a simple idea, developed into a vision and finally came to reality with a boost of courage and passion. And here we are, inaugurating its 4th session with pride and contentment. All the efforts and passion that have gone into bringing this conference to life have come from a team of young leaders eager to bring change to their continent. And you have been chosen to be impacted and to take the inspiration you will hopefully get here to impact your community.

Indeed, the objective of ALAMAU is to create a platform that brings young passionate diplomats together and empower them to address issues stressing the continent. ALAMAU is one of the few conferences of this nature on the continent and it is therefore an honor for us to have you grow in our committees while embodying the role of African leaders in discussing and solving African issues.

It is constantly said that Africa has some of the fastest growing economies in the world, and that we have the world’s most youthful population as well as a wide variety of natural resources; in other words it has been said that Africa has the potential to grow and to develop. Therefore, the theme for this year’s conference: Enhancing Capacity, Accelerating Progress could not be more apt; we must educate our youth, we must protect our resources, we must trade with each other, we must strengthen our healthcare, and we must keep our governments accountable. This is how we will mobilize our potential in guiding Africa towards progress and prosperity.

Delegates, you should take this time to diversify and broaden your views on the topics discussed and to learn how important you are for the continent’s future. I encourage you to be open minded throughout the conference, inside and outside your committees. I also urge you to take time to socialize with others; this a great opportunity for you to meet inspirational and impactful people.

Advisors, your role is equally as important as the role of your students in learning and giving back to your communities. In this conference, you will take part in many discussions around how you, as educators, can prepare the next generation of leaders.

I hope that you all came prepared to learn today in order lead tomorrow.

Once again, welcome to ALAMAU 2017.

RULES OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

General Rules
1. Language:
English will be the official and working language of the conference.

2. Dress Code:
Throughout the conference, all delegates are expected to be dressed in formal attire – either Western Business Attire or traditional African attire. Formal attire for gentlemen consists of suits, dress shirts, dress pants, dress shoes and ties. Formal attire for ladies consists of pant suits, skirt suits, business dresses and dress shoes. Avoid denim, t-shirts, sneakers, clothes with art and provocative clothing. Dresses should have appropriate shoulder and knee-length coverage at all times.

3. Attendance:
Delegates are expected to attend all committee sessions punctually, except excused by the Chair. Delegates noted to be perpetually late, or missing committee sessions may be denied participation certificates. Delegates may be excused from attending committee sessions in the case of medical emergencies, provided there is a signed note from the delegate’s faculty advisor, co-signed by the ALAMAU Chairperson.

4. Roll Call:
A roll call will be conducted at the beginning of every committee session. During roll call, delegates will respond with either ‘present’ or ‘present and voting’. Delegates responding ‘present’ may be permitted to abstain from voting during voting procedures, while delegates responding ‘present and voting’ must vote during all voting procedures.

5. Quorum:
The Chair may declare a committee open and permit debate to proceed when at least one-third of the voting members of the committee is present. The presence of a majority of the members will be required for the vote on any substantive motion. A quorum will be assumed to be present unless specifically challenged by a Point of Order and shown to be absent.

6. Courtesy:
Delegates will show courtesy and respect to the committee staff and to other delegates. The Moderator will immediately call to order any delegate who fails to comply with this rule.

7. Electronic Devices:
No laptops, tablets, cell phones, or other electronic devices may be used in the committee room during formal debate or moderated caucus. Computers may be used outside the committee room during recess or in the committee room. Computers may be used in the committee room during unmoderated caucuses, discussion of amendments, and introduction of draft resolutions. No laptops, tablets, cell phones, or other electronic devices may be used in the committee room during unmoderated caucuses.

8. Blocs:
Bloc formations are highly recommended in every committee at ALAMAU to facilitate collaboration. Each committee is permitted to have a minimum of two and maximum of four blocs, provided that there are at least four delegates in a bloc.

Rules Governing Debate
9. Agenda:
The first order of business for the committee will be the consideration of the agenda. Since all committees at ALAMAU 2017 have only one topic area, the agenda is automatically adopted. In the event of an international crisis or emergency, the committee Chair may call upon the committee to table debate on the current topic area so that the more urgent matter may be attended to immediately. Under such circumstances, a delegate may motion to table the topic and temporarily set the agenda to the crisis situation. After a resolution has been passed on the crisis, the committee will return to debate on the tabled topic.

10. Debate:
After the agenda has been set, one continuously open speakers list will be established for the duration of the topic area, except as interrupted by procedural points or motions, caucuses, discussion of amendments, and introduction of draft resolutions. Speakers may speak generally on the topic being considered and may address any working paper or any draft resolution currently on the floor. A draft resolution can only be referred to as such once it has been introduced to the committee.

11. Unmoderated Caucus:
An unmoderated caucus temporarily suspends formal debate and allows members to discuss ideas informally in the committee room. A motion for an unmoderated caucus is in order at any time when the floor is open, prior to closure of debate. The delegate making the motion must briefly explain the purpose of the motion and specify a time limit for the caucus, not to exceed twenty minutes. The motion will be put to a vote immediately, and a simple majority is required for passage. The Chair may prematurely end an unmoderated caucus if the Chair feels that the caucus has ceased to be productive, and this decision is not subject to appeal.

12. Moderated Caucus:
The purpose of the moderated caucus is to facilitate substantive debate at critical junctures in the discussion. A motion for a moderated caucus is in order at any time when the floor is open, prior to closure of debate. Once raised, the motion will be voted on immediately, with a simple majority required for passage. If the motion passes, a speaker’s list will be opened and delegates will speak for the stipulated time.

13. Suspension or Adjournment of the Meeting:
Whenever the floor is open, a delegate may move for the suspension of the meeting, to suspend all committee functions until the next meeting, for the adjournment of the meeting, or to suspend all committee functions for the duration of the conference. A motion to adjourn will not be in order until three quarters of the time scheduled for the last session have elapsed. The Chair may rule such motions dilatory; this decision is not subject to appeal. When in order, such a motion will not be debated but will be immediately put to a vote and will require a simple majority to pass.

Rules Governing Speeches

14. References:
Delegates must always refer to each other in the third person. Delegates cannot address the committee in their personal capacity, and must thus refer to themselves as “the delegate of…”, rather than “I…” or “you…”.

15. Speakers’ List:
The committee will have an open speakers list for the topic area being discussed. Delegates may add their names to the speakers list whenever the Chair asks for additions to the speaker’s list, provided those delegates are not already on the speakers list, and may remove their names from the list by a request in writing sent to the Dais. At the Chair’s discretion (usually only when a new speakers list is opened) the Chair may solicit/mandate delegates to be added to the speakers list if their participation has been limited up until that point.

16. Speeches:
No delegate may address the committee without having previously obtained the permission of the Chair. The Chair may call a speaker to order if his or her remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion, or offensive to committee members or staff.

17. Speaking Time:
When any speakers’ list is opened, the speaking time is automatically set to one minute. Delegates may also make a motion to set a new speaking time at any time when points or motions are in order during formal debate. This motion requires a simple majority to pass.

Rules Governing Substantive Matters

18. Working Papers:
Delegates may propose working papers for committee consideration. Working papers are intended to aid the committee in its discussion and formulation of resolutions and need not be written in resolution format. Working papers are not official documents, do not require formal introduction and do not have signatories.

19. Resolutions:
A resolution may be introduced when it receives the approval of the Chair and is signed by two-thirds of members of the committee. Signing a resolution need not indicate support of the resolution, and the signatory has no further rights or obligations and may sign more than one draft resolution. Each resolution must have a minimum of two and maximum of three primary sponsors, while other members of the submitting bloc must be included as secondary sponsors. Resolutions require a simple majority to pass unless otherwise stated in specific committee rules. More than one resolution may be on the floor at any one time, but at most one resolution may be passed per topic.

20. Introducing Resolutions:
Once a resolution has been approved as stipulated above and has been distributed, a delegate may make a motion to introduce the resolution. This motion requires only authorization by the Chair and does not require a substantive vote. Immediately after a draft resolution has been introduced and distributed, the Chair may entertain non-substantive points of clarification, typically used to address typographical, spelling, or punctuation errors. A resolution will remain on the floor until debate is postponed or the resolution has been passed.

21. Amendments:
Delegates may amend any resolution that has been introduced. An amendment must have the approval of the Chair and the signatures of all signatories to the original resolution. An approved amendment may be introduced when the floor is open. General debate will be suspended and two speakers lists will be established, one for and one against the amendment. Debate will alternate between each list. A motion to close debate will be in order after the committee has heard two speakers for the motion and two against, or when one of the speakers lists is exhausted. When debate is closed on the amendment, the committee will move to an immediate vote. After the vote, debate will return to the general speakers list.

Rules Governing Voting

22. Voting:
Once committee is in voting procedure and all relevant motions have been entertained, the committee will vote on the resolutions on the floor. Voting occurs on each resolution in succession; once a resolution has been passed, no further resolutions will be voted on. In all matters, both substantive and procedural, each country will have one vote. Each vote may be a “Yes,” “No,” or “Abstain.” All matters will be voted upon by placards. A simple majority requires more “Yes” votes than “No” votes; abstentions are not counted toward either total. A two-thirds majority vote requires at least twice as many “Yes” votes as “No” votes.

23. Conduct during Voting:
After the Dais has announced the beginning of a vote and the committee room has been sealed, no delegate shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order regarding to the conduct of the actual vote.

HOW TO NAVIGATE ALAMAU
THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

Faculty Advisor Program
There will be a number of mandatory activities for faculty advisors throughout the conference. Advisors are invited for a welcome reception at 20h00 on Wednesday March 15, 2017 at The Indaba Hotel. There will also be five sessions in the faculty advisor learning series. Advisors should take notes of all these sessions which will be held in the faculty advisor lounge. Advisors are free to observe their delegates in committee sessions when there is nothing scheduled in the advisor programme.

Dress Code
Delegates are required to be dressed in either western business attire or traditional African attire during committee sessions. Western business attire for men consists of dress suits, dress shirts, dress pants, ties, socks and dress shoes. Denim, t-shirts, sneakers and sandals are not permitted. Ladies are expected to be dressed in pant suits, skirt suits, dress gowns, blouses with skirts or pants and dress shoes. Clothes that expose excessive bare skin or are otherwise revealing are deemed inappropriate.

Assembly of Heads of State and Government
ALAMAU 2017 will simulate the African Union’s Assembly of Heads of State and Government in a single plenary session to discuss all of the resolutions passed in individual committees and develop a comprehensive conference-wide action plan. All delegates will be expected to participate in the session.

Cultural Night
All delegates and advisors are invited to participate in the Cultural Night on Friday March 16th, 2017. Attendees are encouraged to be dressed in traditional African attire (or any attire that symbolizes their home countries or countries of residence). Delegates are also welcome to bring little mementos from their countries to share with other delegates.

Tours of Johannesburg
All delegates and advisors are invited to participate at organized tours of Johannesburg from 13h30 – 18h00 on Saturday March 18, 2017. There will be four separate tour groups: one to the Apartheid Museum, one to the Cradle of Humankind, one to Sandton Mall, and the other to Soweto. The Apartheid Museum documents the dark history of the Apartheid era in South Africa and showcases highlights of the life of Nelson Mandela. Soweto is a suburb in Johannesburg that was often the centre of the black South African struggle during the Apartheid era, and was the home of prominent leaders like Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu. The Cradle of Humankind documents the origin of the human race and includes several artifacts from the earliest socializations known to man and the Sterkfontein Caves which are 60m below the earth’s surface. The Sandton Mall has several shopping centers, including a flea market for arts and crafts. Delegates and advisors can sign up for any of the tours.

Gala Dinner
Delegates and advisors are invited to celebrate the continued success of ALAMAU and its impact on youth leadership in Africa at a gala dinner to be held from 19h30 – 21h30 on Saturday March 18th, 2017. It is a black-tie event.

Delegates’ Party
Delegates are invited to celebrate the hard work done at ALAMAU 2017 at a party to be held from 21h30 – 23h00 on Saturday March 18th, 2017. Delegates are encouraged to be casually dressed for the party.

Internet Usage
There will be wireless internet connectivity for all delegates and advisors on the campus of African Leadership Academy and at The Indaba Hotel. Passwords will be given out where necessary.

Badges and Placards
All delegates and advisors are encouraged to wear their conference badges throughout the duration of the conference. Delegates are also advised to keep their placards safely and have them in use for every committee session; delegates without placards will not be permitted to participate in committee sessions. In the event of the loss of either placards or badges, delegates must contact the administrative team as quickly as possible.

Health and First Aid
In the event of a health emergency, delegates are required to notify a member of the ALAMAU staff immediately. There will be trained First Aid personnel at African Leadership Academy and Indaba Hotel to attend to First Aid needs, should that be required. If a case requires referral to a hospital, the delegate will be referred to the closest hospital.

Security
ALAMAU will do everything possible to guarantee the safety and security of all conference participants; however delegates must take all necessary caution to keep themselves safe. No delegates should leave the conference premises without permission of the administrative staff and their faculty advisors. Failure to comply with this rule will be met with disciplinary procedures at the discretion of the Chairperson. All delegates are advised to have all personal belongings securely locked. Delegates should also avoid ostentatious display of personal effects. In the event of an emergency, please immediately contact Mr. Faith Abiodun at 078 644 2649.

EXPLORE JOHANNESBURG!

Discover some of the fascinating features of the beautiful city of Johannesburg, home of ALAMAU. All participants at ALAMAU 2017 are invited to tour these popular tourist attractions.

Cradle of Humankind and Sterkfontein Caves
The Cradle of Humankind is one of eight World Heritage Sites in South Africa. It is widely recognised as the place from which all of humankind originated. While the exact shape of the human family tree is something scientists are still debating, the one thing that they mostly agree on is that humankind was born here in Africa. In the Cradle of Humankind, about 1,000 hominid fossils have been discovered, spanning several million years. Within the Sterkfontein Caves, scientists have discovered many hominid and other animal fossils, dating back more than 4-million years, to the birth of humanity. There are a number of tight spots and pathways to negotiate in the caves and it is not advisable to do the tour if you are claustrophobic. It is also not advisable for people who suffer from acute asthma or chest problems to do the tour as there are a lot of stairs. Learn more at http://www.maropeng.co.za/

Sandton City Mall & Nelson Mandela Square
Sandton City Mall is one of Africa’s leading and most prestigious shopping centres; home to more than 300 shops such as Burberry, Cotton On, Edgars and many more. The Mall is adjoined by the impressive Nelson Mandela Square featuring a 6-metre high statue of Nelson Mandela which attracts tourists all year round. This will be the only ALAMAU organised trip to a shopping mall. Delegations that wish not to shop at Sandton or would like to shop on another day should organise their own trips to the respective shopping centres of their choice. You can find the shop directory for Sandton city mall here: http://sandtoncity.com/

The Neighbourgoods Market
The Neighbourgoods market is situated in Braamfontein, Johannesburg, featuring the city’s most innovative micro merchants, design makers, specialty producers and food experts. It is the melting pot of the varied cultures of Johannesburg and the greater Gauteng region. Its energy pull is on the community of people it attracts with an array of specialty goods, foods and drinks.

Soweto - Vilakazi Street
Soweto is a suburb in Johannesburg (short form for South Western Townships) that was often the centre of the black South African struggle during the Apartheid era, and was the home of prominent leaders like Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu. The Hector Pieterson Museum is a lasting tribute to the efforts of young South African students who were killed during the protests of June 1976, as they worked towards a better South African society. This tour will avail you the opportunity to visit the home of Nelson Mandela and the Hector Pieterson Museum to learn more about the struggle to racial equality under the apartheid regime of South Africa.
CONGRATULATIONS, ALAMAU 2017 DELEGATES!

The Global Scholars Program at African Leadership Academy is a leadership development program for students from all over the world aged between 14 and 19 years.
