ALAMAU 2020 Fees and Costs

The total costs of participation at ALAMAU 2020 include registration fees, accommodation, visas and flights, as well as personal expenses. All delegations will be responsible for securing visas and paying for their flights from their home countries, as well as accommodation at the conference venues in Johannesburg, The Indaba Hotel, and City Lodge Hotel, Fourways, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Registration and accommodation fees will cover the following:

- i) Three meals and two snack breaks each day of the conference
- ii) All ground transportation, including pick-up and drop-off at OR Tambo International Airport, Johannesburg
- iii) Tours and entrance fees to selected tourist sites in Johannesburg including Cradle of Humankind, Hector Pietersen Museum & Mandela House in Soweto, Apartheid Museum etc.
- iv) Participation at diplomatic reception with Ambassadors of various African countries.
- v) Participation at Gala dinner and delegates' party.
- vi) Mobile phone SIM cards for each delegation.
- vii) Registration package including conference brochure, placards and certificates.

The following fees and costs are applicable to all participants at ALAMAU 2020:
